In our Gospel today Jesus lays out the plan for those who are faithful to the community. First there is to be private correction (Mt 18:15); if this is unsuccessful, further correction before two or three witnesses (Mt 18:16); if this fails, the matter is to be brought before the assembled community (the church), and if the sinner refuses to attend to the correction of the church, he is to be expelled (Mt 18:17). The church's judgment will be ratified in heaven, i.e., by God (Mt 18:18).

This three-step process is used in the secular as well. We want to save the person. We are not to start with a broad humiliation but a private word. If there is no change, go and seek others. It gives us a chance to validate that we are viewing the issue correctly. Finally, if the person does not correct their ways, take it to the entire church or leadership team. If there is still no correcting of ways, they are cast out.

We also hear in the later verses (19 and 20), that Jesus hears our prayers. Christianity is relational and if we pray together, Jesus is in our midst. The power of prayer with others strengthens and can confirm what you hear in God's voice to you.

FALL HARVEST IS HERE – This week there are Invitation Cards in the pews to give to your friends and family to invite them to Welcome Sunday, October 17/18. Pray and see who God is calling you to invite. Give them a card. We have just completed the St. Monica Novena and St. Monica Tears service. Continue to pray for the people you listed and those whose names you took home. We will continue to distribute the cards until Welcome Sunday. As a community we will pray for those you invite in our prayers during Mass.

PARISH MISSION - DO NOT MISS THE CHANCE TO JOIN US AND INVITE OTHERS. This will be a great event to bring others to our parish and give your spirit a boost! Dana is a dynamic presenter who has a strong voice to our youth. It is a 2-night encounter with Jesus through her ministry. You can visit her website to hear some of her music.

WITH DANA CATHERINE

Dana Catherine is an internationally known Catholic singer-songwriter, speaker and worship leader from North Carolina, currently residing in Nashville, TN. Having ministered everywhere from packed church basements to packed arenas across the nation and beyond, with every song and story she shares, Dana calls others to dive deeper into the heart of God with childlike trust and surrender.

To find out more about Dana and her music, visit www.DanaCatherineMusic.com

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Inspiring music to lift your heart to God
- Personal testimony to encourage and renew
- Teaching and time to dive deeper in prayer
- Eucharistic adoration to encounter His love

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EVANGELIZATION For pet lovers, we will have the blessing of animals at 1 pm on October 4th. For healing, there will be an anointing Mass October 17th in Ascension. Bring family and friends to these events. We can have encounters with Jesus and during Mass, receive his true presence. Let's share the greatest gift we have in our lives with others! We are a parish of prayer and healing...real people seeking the real presence.

TAKE SOME ONE-ON-ONE TIME WITH THE TRUE PRESENCE – We now offer 15 hours each week for Adoration on three different days! I strongly encourage everyone to come...even for 15 minutes. Adoration offers a quiet time with Jesus. You can put the transactional world on hold and join the living Christ present with us! Bring your kids on Friday from 10:30-11:30 or Thursday night. If you have never been to Adoration, you enter quietly, kneel or bow as you are able and pick a seat to adore the Lord. Bring a journal, your Bible or some prayers you want to lift up...or best of all, just come and open your heart and mind to Jesus. LISTEN and the Lord will speak to you.
